Deaths.

Mr. Ban Workman, son of Mr. Neil Workman, died on Saturday at his home in the Bush River section of the County. Mr. Workman was only 18 years of age, but had been in bad health for some time. His remains were buried Sunday at Bush River church.

A New Law Firm.

A new law firm has been formed, the members of the new firm being Col. L. Blease, E. S. Blease and C. E. St. Amant. Mr. St. Amant is a young man of much promise and will locate at Prosperity to practice his profession, representing the new firm. Mr. St. Amant came up from Charleston on Sunday.

The German Last Thursday Evening.

A most delightful German was given in the army on last Thursday evening, about thirty couples being in attendance. As usual at such functions in Newberry the ladies were handsomely gowned and the scene was a beautiful one.

The music was furnished by Thomas' orchestra from Columbia.

Death of Mrs. M. C. Morris.

Mrs. M. C. Morris, wife of Mr. M. C. Morris, died at her home at Prosperity on Saturday afternoon in the 33rd year of her age. She leaves a husband and one child with a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her death. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church and was loved by all who knew her. Her remains were buried at the Prosperity cemetery Sunday afternoon.

The New Orleans Mardi Gras.

The Atlantic Coast Line announces a rate of one first-class fare for the round trip to New Orleans on account of Mardi Gras, February 4th to 11th. Tickets on sale February 4th to 10th limited to 15th. An extension may be had until the 28th by depositing ticket with D. B. Money, joint agent at New Orleans, and paying a fee of fifty cents.

"Along the Kennebec"

Will appear at the opera house on Friday, January 17th. It is the great original New England comedy of that name—a pleasing story of New England life pleasantly told. The troupe carries with it beautiful special scenery and mechanical effects. Those who have seen it say "It's most all fun." The performance will be interspersed with high class specialties, good music, accompanied by an excellent orchestra. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. Watch for the band parade at noon.

It Dazzles the World.

No discovery in medicine has ever created one quarter of the excitement that has been caused by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It's severest tests have been on hopeless victims of Consumption, Pneumonia, Hemorrhage, Pleurisy and Bronchitis, thousands of whom it has restored to perfect health. For Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Hay Fever, Hoarseness and Whooping Cough it is the quickest, surest cure in the world. It is sold by all druggists who guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

A Card of Thanks.

Mr. Editor: Will you please allow us space in your valuable paper to express our heartfelt gratitude to our neighbors and friends for their thoughtful kindness to us during the last illness of our precious little boy? Words cannot adequately express our appreciation of their help and sympathy, and we can never repay them; we therefore invoke richest blessings upon them in this and in the life to come.

Items From Mayhinton.

This is the last day of the year and is the fairest day of Christmas. Christmas has passed off very quietly here. No dances or weddings have "come off" yet, but we cannot say how soon 'twill be before we can report some.

Miss Fannie Epps has returned home after a pleasant visit in Columbia. Mr. George Moore accompanied her home.

Capt. James Douglass, of Union, and Dr. Will Douglass, of Jonesville, visited their sisters at the old home during the holidays.

Mrs. Helen Hardy, who has been in Columbia for several months, and Mr. John Hardy, of Newberry, are spending Christmas at the home of their father, Hon. W. D. Hardy.

Mr. W. T. Cofield, of Newberry, visited at Mr. J. E. Cofield's last week.

Miss Mary Cofield is teaching the Newrick school again.

Mr. Z. V. Sumner, of Union, is spending Christmas with friends in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Maybin visited friends in and around Newberry last week, and took in a big Christmas tree and turkey dinner at St. Philips. Both were very much enjoyed.

I wonder if seven ladies in Mayhinton ever heard of the Amos Owens Cherry Tree Company? Yes, I expect so, and "There are others."

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Henderson have moved from our neighborhood to Newberry. Their friends will miss them very much, and especially will the Woman's Missionary Society miss Mrs. Henderson, for she was one of their very best members, always ready to do her duty in everything they undertook.

May they find health, wealth and happiness in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Elison have moved to Mrs. S. E. Chick's and will take charge of her home.

Invitations are out for a party at Mr. S. B. Sims at Cosben, and the young people are expecting a fine time.

Fairy Belle.

Blown to Atoms.

The old idea that the body sometimes needs a powerful, drastic, purgative pill has been exploded; for Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are perfectly harmless, gently stimulate liver and bowels to expel poisonous matter, cleanse the system and absolutely cure Constipation and Sick Headache. Only 25c. at all druggists.

JAMES D. NANCE CAMP.

The Business Transacted at the Meeting on Saturday.

The James D. Nance Camp No. 336 U. C. V. met in the courthouse January 11, 1902, at 11 o'clock a. m.

Commander J. W. Gary called the Camp to order.

On motion, J. A. Rikard, of Co. F. 20th S. C. Regiment, was unanimously elected a member of the Camp.

It was expressed as the sense of the meeting that we adopt memorial tributes to only members of our own camp.

Mrs. R. D. Wright, ex-president of Drayton Rutherford C. D. V. and vice-president of National C. D. V., being present (by invitation) was by a rising vote invited to the privilege of the floor.

She read a letter from Mrs. S. E. Gabbett, custodian, and gave the camp other valuable information as regards obtaining the crosses of honor for all bona fide soldiers who are members of the camp, which information was referred to the committee appointed at a previous meeting, viz: O. L. Schumpert, chairman, Dr. S. G. Welch, J. Cal. Neel, R. T. C. Hunter and W. G. Peterson.

On motion, the following committee was appointed to memorialize the Legislature in regard to rule third as adopted by the committee U. D. C., viz: Comrades O. L. Schumpert, G. F. Long and D. B. Wheeler.

The roll of the camp was then called to secure facts as to the history of different members of the camp for information of the committee.

No further business, the camp adjourned.

J. W. GARY, Commander.
C. F. BOYD, Adj.

Dote From St. Philips.

The old year has gone and a new one has taken its place.

The Christmas tree at St. Philips proved a success it was laden with many nice presents.

The Christmas holidays was enjoyed by all in this community.

The people are busy at work beginning a new year. We can hear the axes in various directions clearing the forest.

Some of the people are not through gathering their cotton crop, this has not been known for years.

Dr. Dickert left last Sunday for Charleston where he will finish his medical course.

Mr. David Kibler, of Texas, is now at home visiting his parent and friends.

There have been more movings this year than we have seen for a long time.

The young folks of our community are still having a jolly old time as we can hear of a dance every few days.

We have not heard from Josh Trump in a long time he must be in the state of sleep again and if he is I hope that 1902 will wake him up.

Feather-top.

Jan. 10, 1902.

Excelsior Items.

We have had some real cold weather again but after all our winters here are rather mild.

Our school has been closed this week owing to the illness of our teacher, Prof. R. C. Counts. Hope he will soon be able to attend to his duty in the school room again.

Mrs. K. Baker and children, of Greenwood, have been on a visit to Mr. A. A. Nance's family here.

Some of our farmers say the grain has been frozen out pretty badly. We hope, however, the grain has not been injured as badly as thought. We believe late sowing of oats are all killed. Some of the farmers say they will sow over again.

Mrs. J. D. Stone is spending a few days with her father's family.

Mr. Clinton Shealy and wife and Mr. Willie Shealy and wife, of Monticello section, visited in this community Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. W. W. McMorris preached a good sermon here Sunday afternoon from the text: "Walk as the children of light." The sermon was listened to with much interest.

A new bridge with side railing has been recently put at the calamus pond. The bridges ought to be kept in good condition if the roads don't get worked when they need it. The roads will be worked as soon as the weather will permit.

Carrie Lou, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cook died at their home in this section on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 5, 1902, after an illness of about two weeks. The burial service was conducted on Monday afternoon by Rev. W. W. McMorris and the remains were laid to rest in the Prosperity cemetery to await the morning of the resurrection. The little girl had just reached the age to be the joy of the home and will be greatly missed by the loving parents, relatives and friends. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family and would say, weep not fond parents as those who have no hope for you shall meet your darling little girl again on that bright and happy shore.

Strikes a Rich Find.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H., "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just what she needs for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

When using baking powder it is always economy to buy the Royal. Royal makes the finest, most wholesome and delicious food.

FIRE IN THE COUNTY.

Wicker Brothers at Reuben Burned Out—Loss Estimated at $4,000.

Sunday night Wicker Bros., at Reuben, were burned out. Supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

Two buildings were burned and stock of goods. They did considerable business and had on hand a large stock of merchandise.

The members of the firm are J. P. and H. M. Wicker, and they place the lowest estimate of their loss at $4,000, with no insurance except what they have in the Farmers Mutual.
